Ass

ociate/Full Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice (JOB #11286)

The School of Criminology and Criminal Justice (SCCJ) invites applications for an associate or full professor (with tenure) to begin August of 2016. Successful applicants must demonstrate the ability to contribute to the core research strengths of the SCCJ in the substantive areas of criminology and criminal justice. The areas of specialization are open, but the SCCJ is particularly interested in individuals with strengths in one of the following areas: empirical testing of criminological theories, juvenile delinquency/justice, corrections, and the forensic scientific aspects of criminal investigations.

The College of Public Service & Community Solutions’ SCCJ is a nationally recognized leader in higher education and is highly regarded for its distinguished faculty and research productivity. The School offers undergraduate, masters, and doctoral degrees, as well as several certificate programs. The School is conveniently located on the ASU Downtown Phoenix campus in the heart of the sixth largest city in the United States. Our proximity to major criminal justice agencies enhances the opportunities for research, instruction, practice, student internship experience, and community-based service learning opportunities. Please visit our web site at http://ccj.asu.edu.

Required Qualifications: A Ph.D. in criminology, criminal justice, or a related field. A distinguished record of scholarly research and publication. Evidence of teaching effectiveness.

Desired Qualifications: A record of externally-funded research.

Application Procedure: Only electronic applications will be reviewed. Applicants are asked to upload the following as a single document in either Microsoft Word or Adobe PDF formats: (1) a letter of application, (2) a curriculum vitae, (3) a writing sample, and (4) three references with complete contact information (mailing address, phone number, and email).

Upload the application as one combined document to https://publicservice.asu.edu/content/jobs. The review of applications will begin on November 9, 2015; if not filled, reviews will occur each Monday thereafter and will continue until the search is closed.

The School actively seeks and supports a diverse workforce. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. A background check is required prior to employment.

Arizona State University is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer. All qualified applicants will be considered without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity, or any other basis protected by law. For complete statements on ASU’s non-discrimination policies, please refer to go to: http://www.asu.edu/aad/manuals/acd/acd401.html and https://www.asu.edu/titleIX/.

ASU offers applicants an opportunity to voluntarily self-disclose information for the University affirmative action plan; applicants may complete an EEO survey for the position they are applying for online. Information you will need to complete the survey: Job Number: 11286. Job Title: Associate/Full Professor. Department Name: School of Criminology & Criminal Justice.