CHRIST & THE AMERICAN MIND

AN EXPANSION ON NASH'S ANALYSIS OF CHRISTIAN IDEALS AND EUROPEAN COLONIZATION by Tyle Clemente
under the supervision of Megha Badruk and Eric Steffey
WHY THIS TOPIC?
THE RATIONALE

WHAT IS WILDERNESS, AND WHY DID COLONIZERS HATE IT?

THE QUESTION

José de Goya y Lucientes, F. (1798). The Devil's Lamp.
CRUSADES MADE METAPHOR REALITY, WITH DEADLY CONSEQUENCES.

THE RESULTS

Hayez, F. (1867). The destruction of the Temple of Jerusalem.
WE NEED TO RECOGNIZE OUR PAST OR WE WILL CONTINUE TO DO EVIL.

THE CONCLUSION

Acknowledgements

Thank you to Kaylan Wingard, my number one proofreader and real life rubber duck throughout this project. I would have dropped out months ago if not for your friendship and assistance. Additional thanks to Eric Steffey and Megha Budruk for taking a chance on me, allowing me to go forward with this project, and teaching me about the world of research. I can’t wait to see where we go next.

Art Used In Slides

Significant Sources Within Paper

The Holy Bible [KING JAMES EDITION]. (1611). Original Bibles.